This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

APPENDIX.

[NOTE. This APPENDIX gives additions and corrections to the Genealogy. The same system of numbering as is there used is followed here, and the large head numbers and the numbers at the left refer to those used in the book and are identical with them. The numerals, from 1 to 10 enclosed in parentheses, indicate the number of the child or the marriage, in that particular family. When children are given, the family name is repeated only when it is some other than Gerould.]

DR. JACQUES JERAULD is said to have come to this country via England. In Medfield, Mass., he bought the "Joseph Adams homestead" in 1721. This was about one eight of a mile from the Jerauld homestead, which, according to tradition, was built in 1765. Dr. Jerauld and wife were "received to occasional communion" in the Medfield church in 1750. He is said to have been seventy-three years old at the time of his death, which would make 1687 the year of his birth. Two sisters of his are said to have died in Medfield in 1748; and he is known to have taken an especial interest in a widow, Ann Lemoyne, who also may have been a sister. The "house that stands near the meeting-house," mentioned in the "will," was occupied and owned, after his death, by his daughters, Hannah and Susanna, by whom a portion of it was sold in 1765. The "will" was administered in 1760, and its witnesses were William Plympton, Eliazer Wheelock and Keziah Plympton. The will of his widow is in the Suffolk Probate.

The negro, Caesar, mentioned in the will, died in Wrentham, Mass., in 1789, Pompey Edes of Boston being his administrator. It is evident that he fell into the hands of Gamaliel Gerould.

The following document, in his hand writing, has come into the possession of the compiler. As will be seen, it is partly in French. The orthography of the document is followed.

"febrier, The 16 Day 1733

Rescieved of Mestres hebram hardain [Abraham Harding] The sum of one pond and tean schelain [four illegible words follow] abegell masen [Abagail Mason, a ward of Abraham Harding,] I said Rescieved By me, James Jerauld, Dr."

Gerould Genealogical Society.

The fourth quinquennial reunion of the "Gerould Genealogical Society" met in the Christian church in East Smithfield, Pa., September 14, 1889, and was called to order by the president, Otis G. Gerould, Esq., of Covington, Pa.

There were members present from Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, and Tennessee. A letter of regret was read from Rev. Samuel L. Gerould, of Hollis, N. H., who has been largely instrumental in completing thus far the genealogy of the Gerould family.

The Rev. C. C. Corss, who had attended the three preceding meetings, offered an earnest prayer. Several appropriate songs were sung by the choir.

The president's address was largely devoted to the necessity of learning to rightly express the thought we wish to communicate. The report of the historian, Dr. H. Gerould, of Cleveland, Ohio, contained some new history, and the genealogy by families, obtained in the last five years. Total number of marriages, twenty; number of births, seventy-two; number of deaths, thirty-one. Total number of fifth generation now living, sixty.

The total number of deaths by generations were, of the fourth, one; of the fifth, ten; of the sixth, nine; of the seventh, thirteen; total, 33.

The last one of the fourth generation came to East Smithfield, in 1802, and died in 1886.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted by a rising vote:

WHEREAS, These have left their earthly homes desolate, going in and out with us no more, reminding us that to the aged death must come, and that no age is exempt therefrom; Therefore

Resolved, That we who remain will tenderly cherish the memory of our departed, emulating their virtues, gaining an inspiration to greater endeavor and higher attainments, and thus shall we render ourselves worthy our ancestry, and better fitted for the everlasting reunion, where none will mourn for "the touch of the vanished hand and the sound of the voice that is still."

The following, formulated by Mrs. Phebe Hendrick, of New York, and moved by C. M. Gerould, of Tennessee, was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Gerould family, desire to express our long-felt and hearty appreciation of the services of Dr. Henry Gerould in our behalf.

Resolved, That we recognize that to him we are indebted for the writing and publication of the Gerould Genealogy, and for suggesting and encouraging the enjoyable and profitable custom of family reunions.

Resolved, That we realize that in these services he has given hard labor and valuable time for which we can offer no adequate remuneration, and we heartily unite in this declaration of our esteem and gratitude.

A collection was taken for the purchase of a gold-headed cane to be sent to the Rev. Samuel L. Gerould, of N. H., as a slight testimonial of esteem for the valuable services rendered by him in these genealogical labors.

The society then adjourned to an adjoining building where a most bountiful dinner had been prepared. A few hours of social enjoyment were passed and then adjourned until September, 1894.

GEROULD GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

The sixth quenquennial reunion of the Gerould family was held in Phelps' grove, East Smithfield, Pa., Aug. 24, 1899. Over two hundred members of the family registered, sixty-five coming from without Bradford County.

The forenoon was spent in greetings, registering, and preparing the tables for the proverbial bountiful Gerould spread.

After dinner all were gathered about the speakers' stand to the tune "America." The president, S. Wood Gerould, presided; and in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Laura M. (Gerould) Craig of Buffalo, N. Y., was asked to take the minutes. The opening song of welcome by the Gerould choir was followed by prayer by Rev. Joel Hendrick, Monteur Falls, N. Y. Walter Gerould Rice gave a hearty address of welcome, which was responded to by Warren Craig of Buffalo, N. Y.

The historian, Dr. Henry Gerould, Cleveland, O., with his report gave something of the history of the Gerould genealogy making, and urged accuracy and fullness in giving names, dates and places, and that all interesting historic events be reported.

The following resolution, presented by Prof. Welland Hendrick, chairman of the obituary committee, was adopted:—

WHEREAS, In his Divine providence, God has removed from us many of our number, among whom are Marcus Botsford Gerould, Mrs. Florilla C. (Gerould) Durfey, John C. Tompkinson, Marshall Bullock, James P. Rice, Mrs. Helen Brigham Sumner, Charles Tracy Gerould, A. Beebe Gerould, Chas. M. Gerould, Wm. F. Towner, and others, therefore,

Resolved, That while meeting here with the living in reunion we pause to remember the virtues of the dead; that we cherish their memory, and commend to our posterity the example of their lives and characters.

Letters were read from Rev. Samuel L. Gerould, Hollis, N. H., and Mrs. Mary P. [J. Abijah] Gerould, and some lines suggested by the present gathering from the pen of Mrs. Julia C. [Dr. Henry] Gerould.

Reminiscences were called for from some member of each of the eight Smithfield branches of the family, and Mrs. Malvina

A. (Gerould) Tompkinson responded for the family of James, Otis G. Gerould for the family of Ephraim Bennett, Mrs. Harriet (Gerould) Jones for the family of George, Mrs. Phebe (Gerould) Hendrick for the family of Ziba, J. Abijah Gerould for the family of Jabez Lawrence. Dr. Henry Gerould then gave some very interesting items of family history.

The singers were then called upon for their reminiscences, when Clayton, Herman, Bird and Martin Gerould responded with a laugh-provoking medley of old time songs.

The following officers were elected for the next reunion :—

President—Clayton Gerould,
Vice-President—Walter G. Rice,
Secretary—Miss Grace O. Gerould,
Treasurer—John J. Cleveland.
Executive Committee—Orpheus B. Sumner, L. Bird Gerould, and Lincoln O. Gavett. The family historians were continued, with the addition of Miss Flora E. Gerould as assistant historian.

All joined in singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and the exercises were closed with prayer by Rev. Joel Hendrick.
